- * What kind of visuals work right now to catch the eye of my target market and get them to take action?
- * What ads work to keep my ad costs as low as possible?
- * How much copy do I need to write, and in what kind of style?

Also, if you're serious about wanting to get seen and heard above the competition, and how you can immediately start creating your own ads that work to grow a list of targeted subscribers that buy whatever you want to sell them, make sure to check out this exciting resource right now - victoriagibson.com/trafficjumpstart.

1. LIST-BUILDING ADS

Get ultra-targeted leads for less & build trust to make offers that sell more easily to your engaged audience.

The best approach to take here is to share your expertise in a way that answers first-level problems your marketing is facing with an instant hit of value.

Do this with a lead-magnet download and run simple ads to invite them to download in exchange for their email.

Invite them to a call or the next step on the thank you page & you have an automated way to get more hot leads for less using Facebook & Instagram ads.

Now more than ever WoC need to speak up and show up.
But it ain't easy. I know.

Why? I'll tell ya.

In my career before starting my online business, I was silenced in the workplace.

I had to play down the color of my skin and blend in so that I don't upset anyone coz I didn't want to be labelled as the 'angry black woman'.

Overlooked for promotions (even though I was the most qualified for the role).

So, I bit my lip, kept my head down and stayed quiet.

And THAT gorgeous is the problem for most emerging WoC coaches and why they struggle to grow their businesses and attract the clients they're meant to serve.

Having a coaching business requires the complete opposite.

To build a successful coaching business you need to be seen, take up space and more than anything be visible.

Once I got over my own visibility blocks, my business went from strength to strength.

That's why I'm holding a 5 Day Live Challenge on Sunday 7 February to help coaches overcome their visibility fears and struggles so you can attract the clients you're meant to serve in 2021
👉 <https://janetkafadar.lpages.co/visibility-event-fb>

During the event we'll cover:

- ★ Why now more than ever WOC need to take up space, step out of the shadows and use their voice to redefine their future and create a lasting legacy
- ★ The 3 common success blocks I see holding most women back from making their business dreams come true and how to overcome them
- ★ What you need NOW to jump out of the blocks and make a splash with what you already know (even if your fear of judgement has been keeping you stuck)
- ★ The #1 deep-rooted block holding most WOC back and how to use the power of social media to overcome it.
- ★ The 3 big signs you're ready to stop hiding and claim your space online with your own coaching business

How you can learn to 'feel' client issues in seconds (emotional, chemical, physical) instead of just treating the surface issues.

After 20 years as a Chiropractor running three practices, I developed a revolutionary system of care that allowed me to put my hands on someone's body to 'feel' blockages and trauma BEFORE they become disease and illness.

This is the same method I've taught over 350 healers and bodyworkers to scale a booked-out, waitlisted practice!

With the Spinal Flow Technique™ therapists, healers (and those who want to be) can take their abilities to the next level, gain confidence in their abilities, and help clients get relief!

Inside this FREE webinar, discover...

- 👉 What I do to find the root cause of my clients issues and deliver results
- 👉 How I stopped treating a handful of people and made a much bigger impact
- 👉 How healers, therapists, and bodyworkers can be viewed as leading experts in their field

★BONUS FOOTAGE★

Watch me give a real-life, hands-on demonstration of my Spinal Flow Technique™ to witness the incredible results firsthand.

1. CREATE AN ONLINE QUIZ

GROW YOUR LEADS FOR LESS THAN $1 A SUBSCRIBER

Yep, my client Sora was sharing how I helped her get 83c quiz leads with a "set-and-forget" ad that delivered the best pre-qualified and highly motivated potential coaching clients that converted to $5K clients.

2. PAID ONLINE WORKSHOPS

HOST IMMERSIVE ONLINE EXPERIENCES AT A LOW PRICE

I know you probably think there's no way you would charge just $5 for people to come and experience your magic in an online workshop.

I know it sounds crazy, especially when your offer is priced anywhere from $2,000 or more...

But stay with me here, because this strategy gives you a dual-sided business growth opportunity - and one that serves your clients while it sells them on the next level.

And the best part is, this is highly scalable, because the profit doesn't come from the tiny workshop cost, it comes from the offer you make at the workshop.

3. OFFER AN IMMEDIATE UPSELL

ASK FOR A QUICK SALE AT OPT-IN

Creating and running super-targeted ad traffic to your lead magnet is one of the best ways to get really cheap quality email subscribers onto your list so you can follow up with them, making offers and connections using automated sequences.

This means you can grow your list and build connection (and sales) automatically, without the need to ever launch if you don't want to.

But there is a really cool way to get a sale immediately on opt in and that's offering a quick upsell at the time of opt in - kind of like a "do you want fries with that" question at Maccas ☺

4. RETARGET YOUR VISITORS

AND MAKE A QUICK OFFER

One of the best parts about running your ad campaigns on Facebook and Instagram is that every click and view is measured and tracked on the platform (when you set it up correctly).

That means you can run ads ONLY to those who have already engaged with you or seen you before and make a quick paid or free opportunity.

Effectively this gives you multiple "bites of the cherry", making sure you get seen again and again and giving you a chance to recoup your ad costs, even when your audience isn't ready to invest in your signature offer YET.

It also works really well for getting registrants to your automated webinars that typically cost more to get people to straight from Facebook & Instagram ads (and where many coaches lose money quickly on their campaigns).
